SUMMARY OF THE REASONS FOR DECISION:

The Picture Sextra No 15 contains text which degrades and dehumanises the women that the magazine portrays to a wide extent. While the degrading and dehumanising tone is strong and sustained, its degree is lessened by other aspects of the publication. The publication is intended for wide distribution, and has the purpose of sexual arousal and entertainment.

Section 14 of the NZBR Act applies to The Picture Sextra No 15 and limitations on its availability must be reasonably justified. The Classification Office does not consider that the extent and degree to which, and the manner in which, the publication degrades and dehumanises the women it depicts outweighs the right to freedom of expression set out in s14 of the NZBR Act. However, given the explicit degree of nudity, the high degree of sexual references, and the degrading and dehumanising tone in the publication, the Classification Office is of the opinion that the availability of the publication is likely to be injurious to the public good unless it is restricted to an adult audience.

Therefore the Classification Office has classified the magazine as a restricted publication namely:

Objectionable except if the availability of the publication is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years.
